

An Aging Life Care Management Company

“When Caring Really Matters”

An Aging Life Care Manager is a credentialed and experienced human services professional with core ethical values, who follows the Standards of Practice and Pledge of Ethics of our National Association.

The One-Stop Resource

Aging Life Care Managers have extensive knowledge about the costs, quality and availability of services in our community. One call to our company can connect you with the assessment and services you are looking for.

1501 S. Pinellas Ave., Suite A
Tarpon Springs, FL 34689
727-842-3344 Phone
727-942-4802 Fax
www.resource4seniors.com

AGING (i)fe CARE™
ASSOCIATION
MEMBER

Aging Life Care Managers do make house calls and can personally offer an umbrella of services.

Assessment of the physical, cognitive, functional abilities, support systems, environmental / safety, financial and legal issues affecting the older adult

Relocation/Placement Assistance to or from home, ALF, Hospital, Nursing Home, or Hospice

Individualized Care Planning
Crisis Intervention and Prevention

Referrals to and monitoring of community resources

Personal Navigation through the complex health-care or Social Services system

Accompany to Medical Appointments

Communication with Family and other client systems

Call us today for a consultation
727-842-3344